2021 CHRISTIAN PLANNER®

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Christian Planner® Family!

Because of you, we're able to bring this special planner to life. In the midst of our daily grind, we can forget to incorporate Christ into our daily lives. The Christian Planner® helps you accomplish your goals while keeping Christ at the center—think of it as your secondary spiritual coach. I pray that this tool will help you, as it's helped thousands of Christians, focus on what matters most: Our Faith!

Our intent for you is simple—to experience God's love every minute of the day, while allowing you to seamlessly record your story of faith along the way.

In Christ's Love,

The Christian Planner® Team

HOW TO USE THE PLANNER

Below are some guidelines to follow throughout the year.

AT THE BEGINNING OF THE YEAR

Design your Vision Board

Through the use of pictures, words, symbols, even doodles this section will creatively define what makes up the foundation of YOU. This section is a blast and will inspire you! Why? Because YOU are awesome.

Fill out your Healthy Habit Goals Chart

This exercise asks you to commit to actions that will improve your life, your relationship with God, and your relationships with others throughout 2021.

EVERY WEEK

Dive into your Weekly Devotional

These two pages aim to guide you in your Christian walk throughout the year. There are dedicated spaces for Sunday Service and Bible Study notes, ensuring that you enter into the right mindset going into the week.

EVERY DAY

Write in your daily appointments, tasks, and top priorities.

In this section, there is plenty of space to help you stay focused and ensure a productive week.

Daily Habit Tracker

Use this tool to keep track of good habits and acts of kindness that you want to accomplish throughout the week, i.e., making your bed, praying each day, calling a friend or family member, etc.

EVERY MONTH

Write in all of your big monthly events and goals!

SEASON	EMPHASIS
Advent (Coming)	Readiness for the coming of Christ at the end of history and at Bethlehem (the four Sundays before Christmas day).
Christmas	The fulfillment of Israel's longing. The Messiah has come. The prophecies have been fulfilled. The Savior of the world has arrived (from December 25 through January 5).
Epiphany (Manifestation)	The manifestation of Jesus to all as Savior not only for Jews but for the whole world (January 6).
After Epiphany	A journey with Christ in his ministry as he manifests himself as the Son of God through signs and wonders (the period after January 6 to the beginning of Lent).
Lent (Spring)	A time to travel with Jesus toward his death. Although Jesus is under constant attack, he ministers effectively to the crowds. Lent follows the gathering storm (begins Ash Wednesday, six-and-a-half weeks before Easter; includes Palm Sunday and ends at sunset on Thursday of Holy Week).
The Great Triduum (The Three Great Days)	The most crucial time in the history of salvation. The church recalls in its worship the events of Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. The Great Paschal Vigil of Saturday night concludes with the resurrection Eucharist (the Thursday, Friday and Saturday of Holy Week).
Easter (the Christian Pass-over - known as the paschal mystery in the early church)	A celebration of the great saving event of the death and resurrection of Jesus for the salvation of the world. The most crucial event of the Christian year and the source of all Christian year spirituality (extends for 50 days after Easter; includes Ascension Day, and ends on Pentecost).
After Pentecost	The church is born on Pentecost Sunday with the coming of the Holy Spirit. After Pentecost witnesses the spread of the gospel and the growth and trials of the early church (from Pentecost Sunday to the beginning of Advent-about a six-month period).

SPIRITUAL CHALLENGE

Repent and be ready for the second coming of Christ. Allow an eager longing for the coming of the Messiah to be birthed in your heart.

---

Embrace an incarnational spirituality. Let Christ be born within in a new way.

---

Make a new commitment to allow Jesus to be manifest in and through your life.

---

Learn to manifest the life of Christ through the witness of life and deeds.

---

Lent is a time for repentance through self-examination and renewal through identification with the journey of Jesus. A time for prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.

---

The three great days are a time of fasting and prayer. We commit to live in the pattern of Jesus' death and resurrection, the pattern of life into which we have been baptized.

---

Here is the source of the spiritual life. We are called to die to sin in the death of Jesus and to rise to the life of the Spirit in resurrection spirituality.

---

A time to embrace the teaching of the church and to go deeper into the truths of God's saving events in history.

---
